MOTION TO INTERVENE

The National Cable & Telecommunications Association (“NCTA”), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2348, Rule 15(d) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, and Rule 15 of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, respectfully moves to intervene as of right in the above-captioned proceeding. NCTA is the principal trade association representing the cable television industry in the United States. Its members include cable operators serving more than 90 percent of the nation’s cable television households. NCTA’s members also include companies operating more than 200 cable program networks, as well as providers of other services and equipment to the cable industry.

The Petition for Review, filed by Comcast Corporation on March 12, 2008, seeks review of a ruling adopted by the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC” or “Commission”), In the Matter of The Commission’s Cable Horizontal and Vertical Ownership Limits, FCC 07-219, MM Docket No. 92-264 (rel. Feb. 11, 2008) (“Report and Order”).

In the Report and Order, the FCC adopted limits on the number of U.S. subscribers which could be served by individual cable companies, such as NCTA’s members.

NCTA actively participated in the Commission's proceeding giving rise to the Report and Order for which review is sought. NCTA's members are aggrieved by the ruling therein.

NCTA was a party in interest in the proceeding before the agency, and its interest and those of its member companies will be affected by the outcome of this case. Therefore, NCTA is entitled to appear and participate as of right in this proceeding.

For the foregoing reasons, NCTA respectfully requests that its Motion to Intervene be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Daniel L. Brenner
